

NATIONAL PARTNERSHIP ON ALCOHOL MISUSE AND CRIME

MEDIA KIT: ORGANIZATION BACKGROUNDER

The Organization

NPAMC's purpose is to identify ways to promote public safety, reduce recidivism and facilitate the rehabilitation of offenders who misuse alcohol by:

- Supporting and conducting non-partisan research, education, and informational activities to increase awareness of the problem
- Identifying innovative solutions and best practices
- Providing information and tools to criminal justice professionals, including, but not limited to judges, attorneys and probation officers

Mission Statement

The National Partnership on Alcohol Misuse and Crime is an inclusive public-private partnership committed to identifying, developing, and promoting criminal justice programs that improve public safety, reduce recidivism and change lives for offenders who misuse alcohol.

NPAMC History

On April 23, 2008, the group created NPAMC's first Board of Directors and passed Bylaws. In June of 2008 NPAMC was incorporated as a nonprofit organization in Washington, D.C. The inaugural meeting took place on September 24, 2008, in Washington, D.C.

Founding Members and Board of Directors

Steven K. Talpins, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer
Vice President of Industry Relations for Alcohol Monitoring Systems

C. West Huddleston III, Vice Chair
Chief Executive Officer of the National Association of Drug Court Professionals

The Honorable William F. Dressel (Retired), Secretary
President of the National Judicial College

Matt Stanton, Treasurer
Vice President of Corporate Affairs, Beam Global Wine & Spirits

Dr. David Gastfriend, Board Member
Vice President of Scientific Communications at Alkermes

Joanne Michaels, Board Member
Director of the National Traffic Law Center, a Division of the National District Attorneys Association

Carl Wicklund, Board Member
Executive Director of the American Probation and Parole Association

MEDIA CONTACTS:
Stephen K. Talpins
media@alcoholandcrime.org
(305) 610-3585

Participating Organizations

NPAMC currently includes 50 participating organizations, representing scientists and researchers, justice professionals, victims groups, treatment professionals, the corrections industry, pharmaceutical and technology companies, the alcohol and insurance industries and policy experts.